| 1                               |   |                         |
|---------------------------------|---|-------------------------|
| 2                               |   |                         |
| 3                               |   |                         |
| 4                               |   |                         |
| 5                               |   |                         |
| 6                               | UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT  |                         |
| 78                          | DISTRICT OF ARIZONA   |                         |
| 9                               | In Re Bard IVC Filters ProductsLiability Litigation   | No. MD-15-02641-PHX-DGC |
| <ul><li>10</li><li>11</li></ul> | SHERR-UNA BOOKER, an individual,  | ORDER                   |
| 12                              | Plaintiff,  |                         |
| 13                              | v.  |                         |
| 1415                        | C.R. BARD, INC., a New Jersey corporation and BARD PERIPHERAL VASCULAR, an Arizona corporation, |                         |
| 16                              | Defendants.   |                         |
| 17                              |   |                         |
| 18                              | Upon consideration of Plaintiff's Motion In Limine #12 and Memorandum In                        |                         |
| 19                              | Support to Exclude Evidence of Dr. Kang's Social Media Posts, the Court hereby                  |                         |
| 20                              | GRANTS the motion.  |                         |
| 21                              |   |                         |
| 22                              |   |                         |
| 23                              |   |                         |
| 24                              |   |                         |
| 25                              |   |                         |
| 26                              |   |                         |
| 27  28                      |   |                         |
| 20                              |   |                         |
|                                 |   |                         |